STAND

A PRAYER COMPANION FOR FEAR

Steady, when fear will not sit still.

At 3 a.m., before the hearing, in the waiting room — Stand is one tap from a guided moment that slows your breathing and returns you to what is true. Then it becomes a daily practice for standing steady.

Scan to open Stand

prayers.dougdevitre.org

Free. No account. Works offline, and what you write stays on your device.

- Steady me now. Ninety seconds, always one tap away: a breathing pacer, one anchoring verse, a short spoken prayer, a declaration.
- 21 guided journeys. Two 30-day journeys, through the armor of Ephesians and the Psalms of trust, 2 journeys for fear, and 17 four-day courage stories.
- The Prayer Book and the Rosary. Traditional Christian prayers, and the Rosary with its mysteries for each day.
- English and Spanish, read aloud. Every day and every prayer can be spoken, at your own pace.
- A printable workbook. The thirty days on paper, or to fill in on screen: prayers.dougdevitre.org/workbook

Shared with you by _____

If fear feels bigger than you can carry right now, you don't have to carry it alone:

- 988 — Suicide & Crisis Lifeline (call or text, 24/7)
- Text HOME to 741741 — Crisis Text Line
- 1-800-799-7233 — National Domestic Violence Hotline (24/7; or text START to 88788)
- 1-800-422-4453 — Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline (call or text, 24/7)
- 911 — if you are in immediate physical danger
- Outside the US: findahelpline.com — free, verified helplines in 175+ countries

Stand offers spiritual encouragement. It isn't medical or crisis care, and reaching out for more help is its own act of courage.

The devotional text is a draft awaiting review by a pastoral advisor; later editions will follow that review.